Rainy winter Fridays herald warm library programs

A warm winter tradition begins its sixteenth season on January 6 as lovers of reading gather at the Aberdeen Timberland Library on Friday mornings for coffee, cookies and books. "Rainy Day Reading Reviews, Volume 16," an eight-week lineup of fiction and nonfiction book reviews by members of the local community, runs each Friday from January 6 through February 24 from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. in the Rosalie Spellman meeting room.

Each week features a guest reviewer talking about and reviewing his or her own book selection. The series is sponsored by the Friends of the Aberdeen Timberland Library. All adults are welcome. The library is located at 121 E Market Street, Aberdeen. For more information, call the library at (360) 533-2360 or visit the library's Web site at www.TRL.org.
