Poetry and music of Rex Valentine will charm

Spend a delightful hour with local author, poet, and composer, Rex Valentine. Mr. Valentine will read selections from his poetry and sing some of his musical compositions in a free presentation at the Aberdeen Timberland Library on Saturday, March 13 at 2 p.m. Valentine invites audience participation as he shares his music.

Valentine is an international award winner for his poetry. He has published three books: The Rutabaga Patch: a Collection of Heart-Warming True Stories Told in Narrative Rhyme to Entertain Both Young and Old; Tiddlywinks: The Little Horse with Three Ears; and Dowsing Discoveries: Finding Water and Other Mysteries. The library display cases are filled with Valentine's work. Visitors are invited to view the collection during March and April.

The Aberdeen Timberland Library is located at 121 E Market Street, Aberdeen. For more information, contact the library at (360) 533-2360 or go to www.TRL.org.

Timberland Regional Library provides for the information, reading and lifelong learning needs of the Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, and Thurston county public at 27 community public libraries and 7 library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's program may contact the library one week in advance.
