Download free music with library district's "Freegal Music" (rhymes with legal)

You can now download—and keep—free music from the Timberland Regional Library District's Freegal Music collection of hundreds of thousands of digital songs. Freegal music files require no special software to download and do not expire. They're compatible with PCs and Macs and can be transferred to iPods, iPads and other MP3-compatible players and devices.

Freegal is easy to use. Login to the Freegal Music site with your Timberland Regional Library (TRL) card number and pin. Search half a million songs from the Sony Music catalog, over 100 music genres, and more than 50 record labels. Then download three free songs each week (Monday-Sunday).

Freegal Music includes current hits such as Ke$ha's "TiK ToK," classic songs such as Bruce Springsteen's "Born to Run," jazz standards like Dave Brubeck's "Take Five," and much more.

To download free music from Freegal, you must go to www.TRL.org. Click on Library Collection, then "Download Collection" on the drop-down menu. Search Freegal by song title, artist, album or composer. Browse featured artists or newly added artists such as Susan Boyle, Band of Horses and Britney Spears. Surf among 127 genres from alternative, through blues, Christian/Gospel, classical, country, folk, hip-hop, Latin, new age, R&B, soundtracks, and world music, to zarzuela (a type of Spanish operetta).

Freegal Music is the most recent of the downloadable catalogs offered by TRL, including audiobooks, eBooks, videos and more music.

For more information, call the library's Central Reference librarians at 704-4636 in the Olympia area or 1-800-562-6022 from elsewhere or go to www.TRL.org.
