“Food, Glorious Food”

Stories of food from around the world,
shared by master storyteller Rebecca Hom

The world over people gather together to celebrate, enjoy companionship and share food. Join master storyteller Rebecca Hom at the Elma Timberland Library on Tuesday, September 14 from 7 to 8:30 p.m. for stories from around the world about how food both sustains us and bonds us.

Refreshments will be provided by the Friends of the Elma Timberland Library. The library closes at 7 p.m. and will be open only for this presentation, which is free and open to all.

“Ah, food,” said Ms Hom, “It is a base common denominator for life. One of the necessities shared by all living things—air, water, shelter, food. Every living thing needs food. Most spend the greater part of their days searching for food, enough to survive let alone thrive. Food is also an integral part of our gatherings and celebrations. It’s a sign of nurturing, of community.”

Hom is a skilled and captivating storyteller. Her “telling” focuses on world wisdom, folk tales, and personal and family stories. Hom’s Web site is <http://backroadsteller.blogspot.com>.

The Elma Timberland Library is located at 118 N First Street, Elma. For more information, please call the library at (360) 482-3737 or go to www.TRL.org.
