Ilwaco Timberland Library: a happening place this January

While much of January is gloomy and cold, the Ilwaco Timberland Library is warm, cheerful, instructive and often entertaining. Sit back with a book or newspaper, meet with friends, or join in some of the library's programs in the building's new community meeting room.

Structured Writing Workshop

Wednesdays, January 13 through March 31 (except Feb. 10 and March 24), 6 to 8 p.m., for adults

Revel in the company of writers who are serious about writing. Published writer Becky Hart will lead a ten-week structured writing workshop. Hart will guide participants in developing a writing practice and nurturing a writing project. Hart was garden writer for the Daily Astorian and wrote features and a column for HipFish. She was also recently published in The Nation magazine's "Ten Things for the Holidays."

Teen Survivor, a game of survival scenarios

Thursday, January 14, 3:30-4:30 p.m., for teens

Gamers can keep up their strength with refreshments provided by the local Friends of the Library.

Family Movies @ the Library

Saturday, January 16, 12:30-2 p.m., for all ages

Join library staff for popcorn and family-friendly movies. Bring pillows and blankets and get comfortable.

Gardening with Earl Miller

Thursdays, January 21 through February 25, 1 to 3 p.m., for adults and teens

Ease gently into the gardening season and learn from a pro. Master Gardener and Certified Arborist Earl Miller presents a six-week course on gardening. Topics: characteristics and management of garden soil, selection and care of ornamental plants, lawn choices and maintenance, selecting and planting fruit trees, pruning trees and shrubs, and diagnosis and treatment of plant problems

Launch "PageTurners Book Discussions"

Third Thursdays of the month beginning January 21, 6-7:30 p.m., for adults

Fiction—popular and literary; nonfiction—historical, scientific, biographical—what's your pleasure? Join library staff for an organizational meeting and help choose the books to be discussed in a brand new discussion group. Then join the conversation on the third Thursday of the month.

Family Day @ the Library

Saturday, January 23, 1-2 p.m., for all ages.

Spend time together at the library, hear a rainy day story and make sun catchers to chase away the rain. Check out books to share at home, too.

Ilwaco library hours:

Tuesday & Thursday, 10 – 7

Friday, 10 – 5

Saturday, 10 – 3

Closed Wed., Sun., and Mon.

Address: Ilwaco Community Building, 158 First Avenue North, Ilwaco
