

December 14, 2011

End the year with a spark of magic at Raymond, Winlock and Elma libraries

Magician Jeff Evans brings his winter holiday magic show to three Timberland library branches on Thursday, December 29.

- * 11 a.m. to noon at the Raymond library
- * 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. at the Winlock library
- * 6 to 7 p.m. at the Elma library

Skits include a trained reindeer that does card tricks and a drawing of Santa that comes to life, along with many others. Evans' family-friendly presentations involve audiences and add humor to the surprises that are the magician's hallmark.

Mr. Evans' career in magic began at age twelve when he found a book on coin tricks at his grandparent's house. He followed up by poring over every book on magic that the library in Lacey could produce. Now he performs throughout the Northwest and beyond. Evans lives in Olympia. His Web site is www.simplymagic.org.

- * The Raymond Timberland Library is at 507 Duryea Street; phone number, (360) 942-2408
- * The Winlock Timberland Library is at 322 1st Street; phone number (360) 785-3461
- * The Elma Timberland Library is at 118 N First Street; phone number (360) 482-3737.

Please call the libraries for more information or go to www.TRL.org.

