Eighties Murder Mystery Library Party!

Friday, March 16

7 - 9:30 p.m.

for adults and teens only

Lacey Timberland Library

Like, Oh My Gosh... you just totally have to join us at the library for one radical night only to participate in an interactive murder mystery game.

Polly Abdool is hosting a totally tubular album release party fundraiser for her friend, international pop idol Debbie Gribson, at the posh Beverly Hills Public Library. The guest list is stacked full of big name celebrities ready to hit the scene in outrageous '80s fashion.

What promises to be the gala of the year turns into an evening of horror when one of the guests is murdered! Only with our powers combined can we solve the mystery and bring the murderer to justice.

To play an assigned character, please visit the Lacey Timberland Library Information Desk starting on Thursday, March 1. If you prefer to play a supporting actor role, just grab your parachute pants and Members Only jackets, or show up on the night of the gala in your best eighties finery.

This program is for teens and adults only and is sponsored by the Friends of the Lacey Timberland Library.
