On Stage at the Lacey Timberland Library

Readers Theater Unlimited to perform Word Salad

Lacey Timberland Library

Wednesday, September 20 from 2:00 until 3:30 p.m.

Readers Theater Unlimited will perform three short plays in which tongue-twisters, malapropisms, and clashing clichés abound.

Dragnet (directed by Geri Campbell) was written by comedic genius Johnny Carson as a spoof of the popular television show. The deadpan delivery of Detective Joe Friday will keep you guessing as he investigates a robbery at the Acme School Bell Company.

The Auction (written and directed by Marc Harrison) finds Harry and Midge pitted against an unknown bidder as they seek ownership of a multi-lingual sassy-mouthed parrot to further Harry's wacky schemes.

We'll close the afternoon with Easy Aces: Jane Serves on a Jury, directed by Nanette Wichman. When dizzy, free-spirit Jane Ace is chosen to serve on a jury, comical chaos breaks loose in the courtroom.

All Timberland library programs are free and open to the public. The Lacey Timberland Library is located at 500 College St. SE. For more information, call the library at 360-491-3860 or visit www.TRL.org.

Timberland Regional Library provides for the information, reading and lifelong learning needs of the Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific and Thurston county public at 27 community public libraries and six library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's programs may contact the library one week in advance.
