Local food is on the menu at Lacey library program

Learn about alternatives to industrialized food production systems at the presentation, “Focus on Food: Local, Sustainable, and Delicious,” at the Lacey Timberland Library on Thursday, September 22 from noon to 1 p.m. Enjoy a sampling of dishes showcasing food from the local area while taking in an introduction to the sustainable food movement and a panel discussion.

This event is being presented by the Lacey library, the Olympia Food Co-op (www.olympiafood.coop) and the Olympia chapter of Slow Food (<http://slowfoodolympia.org>) as part of Sustainable South Sound’s South Puget Sound Food Summit (www.sustainablesouthsound.org).

The Lacey Timberland Library is located at 500 College Street SE. For more information, please call 491-3860 or go to www.TRL.org.

Timberland Regional Library provides for the information, reading and lifelong learning needs of the Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, and Thurston county public at 27 community public libraries and 7 library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library’s program may contact the library one week in advance.
