

BiblioBall 2017: Folksy Frolic

All-ages Literary Dance Party for the Whole Family!

4th Annual BiblioBall

Olympia Timberland Library

Saturday, December 16

6:30-8 p.m.

All-ages welcome!

Join us at this enchanting Folksy Frolic, when the library transforms into a grand ballroom! Guests can dress as fairies, gnomes, sprites, a favorite classic literary character, or in their finest formal wear for this festive evening of merriment.

Enjoy dancing, refreshments, show off in the fashion show, and capture special moments in the photo booth.

Author/Herbalist Elise Krohn will host a table making nature crafts, and guests of all ages will find plenty of activities to delight them. The musical entertainment this year will be provided by The Bow Weevils, an Old Time Stringband from Olympia made up of amazing local teens!

Free tickets available starting Saturday, December 2 at the Youth Services desk.

The Friends of the Olympia Timberland Library will sponsor this event, which takes place after hours. No other library services will be available.

Everyone is welcome at Olympia Timberland Library's fourth annual BiblioBall!

All Timberland Programs are free and open to the public. The Olympia Timberland Library is located at 313 8th Avenue SE. For more information, contact the library at 360-352-0595 or visit TRL.org.

Timberland Regional Library provides for the information, reading and lifelong learning needs of the Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific and Thurston county public at 27 community public libraries and six library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's programs may contact the library one week in advance.
