

October 10, 2011

"To Market to Market"
Meet artist & author Nikki McClure and local farmers

Local artist and author Nikki McClure will read from her new book, "To Market To Market," and discuss her experience in creating it during an event at the Olympia Timberland Library on Wednesday, October 26 at 7:30 p.m. Farmers and artists featured in the book will join Ms. McClure and talk about their farms or studios and bring samples of their goods.

Known for art that celebrates the virtues of community, hard work, and living gently on the planet, McClure explores a topic close to her heart in her latest book, which follows a mother and son through the Olympia farmers market. As the pair checks off items on their shopping list, the reader learns how each was grown or produced, from its earliest stages to how it ended up at the market. Copies of the book will be available for purchase and signing.

This is an after-hours event. No other library services will be available during the program. Doors will open at 7:25. The Olympia Timberland Library is located at 313 8th Avenue SE, Olympia. For more information, please contact the library at (360) 352-0595 or go to www.TRL.org.

---

---

Timberland Regional Library provides for the information, reading and lifelong learning needs of the Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, and Thurston county public at 27 community public libraries and 7 library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's program may contact the library one week in advance.