Meet Olympia artist Nikki McClure; reading and book signing open house at library May 1

Meet local artist and author, Nikki McClure, at an open house at the Olympia Timberland Library on Saturday, May 1 from 1 to 3 p.m. Ms McClure will read her new children's book, "Mama, Is it Summer Yet?" at 1 and 2 p.m. in the library atrium, with book signings following each reading. The book will be available for purchase.

McClure's previous book, "All in a Day," is a 2010 Pacific Northwest Booksellers Association award winner. Original art work from the new book is on display at Batdorf & Bronson Coffee Roasters on 516 Capital Way S. through May 5. McClure's website is www.nikkimcclure.com/.

The Olympia Timberland Library is at 313 8th Avenue SE, Olympia. For more information, call the library at (360) 352-0595 or go to www.TRL.org.

Timberland Regional Library provides for the information, reading and lifelong learning needs of the Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, and Thurston county public at 27 community public libraries and 7 library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's program may contact the library one week in advance.
