Spring peeps around the corner with Olympia library's all-ages diorama contest

Peep into a book and create a diorama for the Olympia Timberland Library's all-ages "Peep into my Favorite Book" contest. Your mission: to create a scene from one of your favorite books using Peeps®, those brightly colored marshmallow confections that hop on and off stores' seasonal shelves each spring, for your main characters.

Dioramas must be book, literature or library inspired. They must also be self contained and roughly the size of a shoebox. Pick up the complete rules and an entry form at the Olympia library or another Timberland library. They are also available on the Timberland Regional Library website at www.TRL.org. The rules sheet includes a list of prize categories and numerous websites that offer ideas and inspiration.

Submissions will be accepted from Wednesday, April 27 to Saturday, May 7. Winners will be announced at an awards ceremony at the Olympia Timberland Library on Wednesday, May 11 at 6 p.m. All are welcome to attend. Dioramas will be on display in the library's youth area beginning April 27. Fame and good fortune await you. Don't delay, grab a peeps of the action and bring your master-peeps to the library!

The Olympia Timberland Library is located at 313 8th Avenue SE. For more information, contact the library at (360) 352-0595 or go to www.TRL.org.
