Book Release & Slideshow for “Signal: A Journal of International Political Graphics”

Alec Dunn, co-editor of the new journal “Signal,” will give a presentation that looks at the intersection of art and protest on Thursday, January 20 from 7:30 to 9 p.m. at the Olympia Timberland Library.

“Signal” is an ongoing book series dedicated to documenting and sharing graphics, art projects, and cultural expressions of international social movements. The slide show will focus on some of the work in the book and the current intersection of politics, art, and social movements.

Mr. Dunn is an illustrator, amateur historian and printer from Portland, Oregon. He has illustrated several books, designed record covers, published the zine “Nosedive” and been involved in art and activism for nearly two decades.

The library is normally closed at this time and is only open for the program. The Olympia Timberland Library is located at 313 8th Avenue SE, Olympia. For more information, call (360) 352-0595 or go to www.TRL.org.

Timberland Regional Library provides for the information, reading and lifelong learning needs of the Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, and Thurston county public at 27 community public libraries and 7 library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library’s program may contact the library one week in advance.
