“Who’s Your Dada?” Artists discuss redefining the doll at library event

Two Washington artists, Bellingham’s Clarissa Callesen and Olympia recycle artist Ruby Reusable (Diane Kurzyna), both featured in the book “Who's Your Dada? Redefining the Doll through Mixed Media,” will discuss their artistic process at the Olympia Timberland Library on Thursday, June 3 from 7:30 to 9 p.m. The library will be open only for this after-hours event.

Drawing inspiration from the Dada art—or anti-art—movement of the early 20th century, the dolls in the book are created from found or constructed items that would usually be discarded. Copies of book, by Linda and Opie O'Brien, will be available for purchase and signing.

The presentation is sponsored by the Friends of the Olympia Timberland Library. The library is at 313 8th Avenue SE, Olympia. For more information, call (360) 352-0595 or visit www.TRL.org.
