Olympia Timberland Library

This program will be held after regular library hours and no other services will be available.

Unlikely alliances have joined Native communities with their rural white neighbors--some of whom had been their adversaries in treaty rights conflicts--to safeguard their local environment.

They have confronted mines, pipelines, dams, and other threats to both Native peoples and white ranchers, farmers, and fishers.

Zoltán Grossman is professor of Geography and Native Studies at The Evergreen State College.

Timberland Regional Library provides for the entertainment, information, and lifelong learning needs of Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, and Thurston county residents at 27 community public libraries and six library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes, timber tax, fundraising efforts of TRL Friends of the Library, and generous donations by individual supporters.

Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's programs may contact the library one week in advance. For more information visit TRL.org
