Playing at the library January 12 Kimya Dawson, Defiance, OH, & Your Heart Breaks

In concert: Kimya Dawson (Olympia, WA), Defiance, OH (Columbus, OH), and Your Heart Breaks (Seattle, WA) play the Olympia Timberland Library after hours on Wednesday January 12 from 7:30 to 9 p.m. As always, admission is free of charge.

Each band or soloist will perform a set of music and songs. Kimya Dawson and Clyde Peterson of Your Heart Breaks will perform as solo acts. Dawson plays acoustic guitar; Peterson plays electric guitar; and Defiance, Ohio plays "loud" drums, bass, guitars and a violin.

Dawson is a singer and songwriter from Olympia. Nine of her songs were featured in the award-winning 2008 film, Juno, and her new album "Thunder Thighs" will be out soon.

Theodore Hilton of Defiance, Ohio writes in an email that his group is a punk band from Bloomington, Indiana that likes to think of itself as having a sound reminiscent of The Mob, The Violent Femmes, The Band, and The Stax House Band.

Seattle's Clyde Peterson fronts for Your Heart Breaks, a collaborative music project. Direct influences include queercore and the music has also been described as indie rock, folk and punk.

The Olympia Timberland Library is at 313 8th Ave. SE, Olympia. For more information, call 352-0595 or visit www.TRL.org.

Timberland Regional Library provides for the information, reading and lifelong learning needs of the Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, and Thurston county public at 27 community public libraries and 7 library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's program may contact the library one week in advance.
