Local poet Bill Ransom discusses “The Woman and the War Baby”

Bill Ransom will be at the Olympia Timberland Library on Tuesday, February 2 at 6:30 p.m. to discuss and sign copies of his new title, "The Woman and the War Baby." The book will be available for purchase.

The Woman and the War Baby is a book-length poem written in multiple styles. The story traces a particular mother and war baby, but also touches on their counterparts throughout the world.

Ransom is an academic dean at The Evergreen State College. He has published six collections of poetry and seven novels, including the noted Pandora Series with the late science fiction writer, Frank Herbert (Dune). Ransom's poetry has been nominated for the Pulitzer Prize and the National Book Award.

The Olympia Timberland Library is at 313 8th Avenue SE. For more information, call (360) 352-0595 or go to www.TRL.org.

Timberland Regional Library provides for the information, reading and lifelong learning needs of the Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, and Thurston county public at 27 community public libraries and 7 library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's program may contact the library one week in advance.
