Insurance 101: Your questions answered at Shelton library forum

If you have health insurance woes or are confused about your auto or life insurance, bring your questions and problems to a forum of the Washington State Office of the Insurance Commissioner (OIC) to be held at the Shelton Timberland Library (William G. Reed Public Library) on Tuesday, October 19 from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. The OIC helps consumers with problems they're having with their insurance companies.

Bianca Stoner and Ethel Smith, Compliance Analysts from OIC, will give a brief overview of the agency's services and will field questions about health, auto, life and even pet insurance. They can also tell how to fight back when claims are denied. The agency's Web site is www.insurance.wa.gov.

The forum ends after regular library hours. Library services will be available until 7 p.m., when the library closes. The Shelton Timberland Library is at 710 W Alder Street, Shelton. For more information, call the library at (360) 426-1362 or go to www.TRL.org.
