Shelton library hosts end-of-summer outdoor concerts

The Shelton Timberland Library (William G. Reed Public Library) caps its summer programs with a pair of concerts by Olympia area bands on Tuesday August 16 and 23 from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. The concerts will be held in the amphitheater on the library grounds.

August 16 marks the debut of “The Percolators”. The band’s music features soul, funk, blues and jazz. The musicians have played in many projects, individually and together, throughout the Pacific Northwest for 30 years. Based in the American tradition of rhythm & blues, the Percolators’ music encourages audiences to get up and dance, sing along, hoot and holler, “just plain have fun”, in a family-friendly environment. “The Percolators” are Steve Luceno (string bass, vocals); Stefan Abuan (guitar, vocals); Maria Joyner (drums, vocals); and Jim Pribbenow (saxophones, vocals).

August 23 brings the energy and garage-band groove of Morgan and the Organ Donors—Fajr Wilson (drums), James Maeda (guitar), Leah Cipolla (bass), and Sara Peté (vocals). “This is the perfect sound of late-night Olympia dance parties,” said one reviewer. The group is on the Internet at www.myspace.com/morganandtheorgandonors and www.facebook.com/MorganandtheOrganDonors.
