Discover the winged wildlife in your own backyard

Learn about our beautiful feathered friends from local birding expert, Burt Guttman, who will present “Our Winter Yard Birds” at the Shelton Timberland Library (William G. Reed Public Library) on Thursday, January 7 at 6:30 p.m. Find out what winter birds eat and which trees and shrubs they favor.

Guttman regularly leads bird walks, aimed primarily at beginners to help them learn some birding basics, although many experienced birders also come along. Guttman is an Evergreen State College professor emeritus and author of the new book, Finding Your Wings, A Workbook for Beginning Bird Watcher, a new title in the Peterson Field Guide series.

The library is located at 710 W Alder Street, Shelton, 98584. For more information please contact the library at (360) 426-1362.

Timberland Regional Library provides for the information, reading and lifelong learning needs of the Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, and Thurston county public at 27 community public libraries and 7 library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's program may contact the library one week in advance.
