Gansango Music and Dance Company brings a splash of Africa to performance at Tumwater library

Clap, listen, tap your feet, and even dance—you'll find it hard not to dance—as the Gansango Music and Dance Company entertains with a splash of culture from Africa. The troupe will perform at the Tumwater Timberland Library on Saturday, September 18 at 2 p.m. The event is free of charge as are all library presentations and is for youth, families and adults. It is being sponsored by the Friends of the Tumwater Timberland Library.

In colorful costume, Gansango's multicultural group of dancers and musicians will present drumming, dance and song from West and South Africa. Time for questions and discussion about the dances and the instruments will be included. The company is directed by Etienne Cakpo, originally from Benin and now a teacher and choreographer based in Seattle, Washington. Gansango's Web site is <http://gansango.com>.

The Tumwater Timberland Library is located at 7023 New Market Street, Tumwater 98501. For more information, please call the library at (360) 943-7790 or go to www.TRL.org.
