Job Hunting Help

Monthly workshops begin Jan. 9 at Tumwater Timberland Library

Tumwater Timberland Library staff will give a job hunting workshop on the second Saturday of each month from January 9 through June 12 from 2 to 3:30 p.m. in the library's meeting room. The workshop will cover a range of topics:

- Job search resources in the library, both print and on the Internet, and resources in the local area,
- Online job searching,
- How to complete an online application, especially what to expect on forms and what information to have on hand,
- Basic job searching elements and strategies such as resumes interviews and time management.

Workshop attendees will be provided with handouts, including a printout of the slide presentation that will be part of the program. Tables will be set up to assist in note taking.

The Tumwater Timberland Library is located at 7023 New Market Street, Tumwater, 98501. For more information, call the library at (360) 943-7790 or go to www.TRL.org.

Timberland Regional Library provides for the information, reading and lifelong learning needs of the Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, and Thurston county public at 27 community public libraries and 7 library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's program may contact the library one week in advance.
