

September 27, 2011

Photographer shares “An African Safari” at Westport library

Judith Nyman-Schaaf will visit the Westport Timberland Library to share her experiences in Namibia and Botswana. She will present a video slideshow set to music and take questions on Thursday, October 6 at 1:30 p.m. Ms. Nyman-Schaaf has taken several photography safaris to Africa and this was her most recent.

Nyman-Schaaf, who lives in Seattle, is a retired University of Washington Information School administrator. When not traveling, she spends much of her time volunteering at the Woodland Park Zoo.

The presentation follows a brief business meeting of the Friends of the Westport Timberland Library. The public is invited to the meeting, which begins at 1 p.m., as well as the presentation. Refreshments will be served.

The Westport Timberland Library is located at 101 E Harms Avenue, Westport. For more information, please call the library at (360) 268-0521 or go to www.TRL.org.

Timberland Regional Library provides for the information, reading and lifelong learning needs of the Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, and Thurston county public at 27 community public libraries and 7 library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's program may contact the library one week in advance.