The Razor's Edge:
The Washington Razor Clam Phenomenon

The Razor's Edge:

The Washington Razor Clam Phenomenon

Saturday, October 14

2 - 3:00 p.m.

Yelm Timberland Library

A challenge to dig but delicious to eat, razor clams are entwined with the state's commerce, identity, and history. Join author and clam digger David Berger to explore the twists and turns of a quintessential Northwest activity, from its pre-settlement days to the present.

Discover the buried treasure known as the Pacific razor clam.

This program is presented through a grant from Humanities Washington.

All Timberland Programs are free and open to the public. The Yelm Timberland Library is located at 210 Prairie Park St. For more information, contact the library at (360) 458-3374 or visit TRL.org.

Timberland Regional Library provides for the information, reading and lifelong learning needs of the Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific and Thurston county public at 27 community public libraries and six library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's programs may contact the library one week in advance.
