

Press Release: Rural Race Talks

Date: November 10, 2020 at 6 - 8 p.m.

LaNicia Duke

Rural Race Talks

for adults

Hear from others in our rural communities and share your experiences as we talk and grow together.

Join LaNicia Duke, executive director of the Love Coalition, for a series of four conversations on how to talk about race in rural areas. Hear from others in our rural communities and share your experiences as we discuss and grow together in a virtual Zoom meeting space. We will meet weekly 6-8 p.m. each Tuesday from Nov.10 through Dec. 1.

LaNicia hosts "Rural Race Talks," a monthly call-in show on KMUN, 91.9FM in Astoria, Ore. Find out more at coastradio.org.

Timberland Regional LIBRARY provides for the entertainment, information, and lifelong learning needs of Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, and Thurston county residents at 27 community public libraries and six library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes, timber tax, fundraising efforts of TRL Friends of the Library, and generous donations by individual supporters.

All Timberland library programs are free and open to the public. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's programs may contact the library one week in advance. For more information visit TRL.org
