- 1) Purpose:
To provide guiding principles by which Timberland Regional Library (TRL) data is made available to the public.
- 2) Scope:
This policy applies to all TRL libraries.
- 3) Background: None.
- 4) Definitions:
 - A. Dataset: a collection of raw, non-manipulated data presented with associated metadata, and which is machine readable.
 - B. Data: Facts, measures, and statistics relating to library operations, collections, and budget.
- 5) Policy:
 - A. TRL recognizes the rights of citizens, organizations, and local government to public access to library records and information.
 - B. TRL adopts the following principles to ensure that data is open, accessible, and reusable:
 1. Open by Default. Presume publication for all, unless data includes exempt public records;
 2. Timely and Comprehensive. Data is published regularly in its original, unmodified form;
 3. Accessible and Usable. Data is machine readable, includes relevant metadata, and is provided online in formats that meet established data standards;
 4. Freely Available; authorized datasets are made freely available without restrictions or limitations.
 - C. The Executive Director, or designees, is authorized to approve TRL datasets for publication.
 - D. Requests for the publication of additional TRL datasets shall be immediately referred to the Executive Director according to established Public Records Request Procedures.
